

Rotherham's Learning Disability Plan

Rotherham Council is writing a plan to make sure that people with learning disabilities across Rotherham live good lives.

To do this, the Council want to find out what is important to people across Rotherham.

You have until the 10th of October 2023 to have your say.

This survey can be filled out by:

- People with learning disabilities of all ages
- Family carers
- Practitioners supporting people with learning disabilities (e.g. teachers, social workers and health workers)
